

Fine Arts - Painting Study Program / Painting Department

The Fine Arts - Painting Study Program gives the students the opportunity to obtain a profound practical and theoretical knowledge of the painting field. Having graduates which developed remarkable international careers, the above mentioned study program aims both a solid technical formation and the active connection to the contemporary painting's values and issues. This program debuts with study subjects aiming to exercise the practical skills and abilities with the purpose of preparing the student for being in control of the creative act, so that, at the end, the practical works to focus on making expressive pictorial configurations and developing individual creative skills.

Specific competencies

Among the essential competencies obtained by the study program's graduates, we mention:

- the advanced knowledge of the techniques specific to drawing and painting
- elaboration of artistic projects, particularly in the field of painting and generally in the visual arts field
- the theoretical understanding of the artistic field

Career opportunities

The professional career options of the study program's graduates include:

Freelance artist / creative practitioner within the field of painting / coordinator and designer of projects and works within the fields of monumental art, environmental art and sacred art / coordinator and developer of projects in the field of the creative industries / organizer of exhibitions and cultural activities / teacher within the field of art education